

Program Fee (estimate $3800) includes:

- Accommodations
- All international instructional fees and textbooks
- Ground transportation (one-way train transfer from St. Petersburg to Moscow and transfer to all cultural venues)
- Meals (weekly allowance)
- International health insurance
- All cultural activities fees
- Russian visa fees

Cultural activities include (but not limited to):

- The Hermitage
- St. Isaac's Cathedral,
- River tours in St. Petersburg and Moscow
- A day trip to Peterhof
- Bus excursion in Moscow
- the Moscow Kremlin and its Armory
- Gorky Park
- the Tretyakov Gallery
- VDNKh, the Museum of Cosmonautics
- 2-days trip to Vladimir and Suzdal' (the Golden Ring of Russia)

Department of Germanic & Slavic
Studies

Additional expenses (not covered by the program fee):

- Airfare (approximately $1000-1300)
- UGA Tuition (rates are set in April for summer courses; summer 2015 rate was $286 per credit hour)
- Mandatory UGA fees (the technology fee, the institutional fee and the green fee; these fees are subject to change, depending on Board of Regents policy)
- Personal expenses

Financial Aid

Hope and Boren Scholarships apply.

Other funding opportunities:

<http://gsstudies.uga.edu/kicklighter-study-abroad-travel-grants>

<http://goabroad.uga.edu/>

Application due date      January 15, 2016

Apply at      <http://goabroad.uga.edu/>

For more information, contact

Dr. Olga Thomason
706-542-7826
olgath@uga.edu

<http://gsstudies.uga.edu/study-abroad-internships/uga-study-abroad-russia>

UGA
STUDY ABROAD
IN RUSSIA

May 21 – July 2, 2016

The University of Georgia

«Язык есть исповедь народа, его душа и быт родной.»
П. А. Вяземский

The UGA Study Abroad in Russia program offers students the opportunity to earn 9-11 credit hours (depending on the level) studying the intricacies of the Russian language and culture while traveling for six-weeks in Russia.

Students will stay for the first three weeks in St. Petersburg - one of the most intriguing and historically significant cities in Europe, which has been called “the Russian window to the West”, “the Venice of the North” or “the Paris of the East”.

The remaining three weeks participants will spend in Moscow – a city that is not only the political and economic center of Russia, but also an impressive multicultural megalopolis that accommodates people of more than 170 nationalities, but nevertheless retains its Slavic roots.

Courses and Credits

Students will earn 9 credit hours (11 credit hours for beginners) by enrollment in:

I. RUSS3550 Contemporary Issues in Russian Society and Culture (3 hours).

This course satisfies the UGA General Education Core Curriculum requirements, Area IV. It is taught in English and provides an overview of changes that occurred in Russian culture over the past several decades. Particulars of the Russian politics, economy and their influence on everyday life of modern Russian society and Russian culture are discussed.

AND

II. One of the following 4 tracks (depending on need):

1) RUSS1001/RUSS1002 Elementary Russian (4 hours each). Fundamentals of Russian grammar, conversation, pronunciation, and reading. Emphasis on oral proficiency and comprehension.

2) RUSS2001/RUSS2002 Intermediate Russian (3 hours each). Review of basic grammar and study of more advanced grammatical topics. Oral proficiency, comprehension, and vocabulary building will be emphasized. The course will include reading and discussion

3) RUSS3001/RUSS3002 Russian Conversation and Composition (3 hours each) These courses are designed to promote the students' ability to express themselves accurately in spoken and written Russian and to increase their comprehension of normal Russian speech.

4) RUSS3200 Russian Culture to the Time of the 1917 Revolution /RUSS4001 Advanced Russian Conversation and Composition (3 hours each). The first course is a survey of Russian culture from the period of Kievan Rus' to the present. The course is designed to increase the students' proficiency in all language skills and to build vocabulary. Conducted in Russian. The second course is an advanced language study combining instruction in grammar, composition and stylistics with intensive practice in spoken Russian.

«Народ выражает себя всего полнее в языке своём. Народ и язык, один без другого, представлен быть не может.»

И. И. Срезневский